GALA RALLY TALENT PARADE TODAY NOON IN GYMNASIUM CLIMAXES CONTEST SERIES

Five Students Contest In Finals For Prizes Awarded to Three Winners; Second Contest Begins

Today in the gymnasium from 11:30 to 1, the first Gala Talent Parade finals in the history of San Francisco State College will be held to climax the first of the semester's series of rally contests.

With Howard Brubeck, Jack Fisher, Evelyn Fitzpatrick, Helen Newell, and Frances Twohig entered as final contestants the program outlined promises to be varied and entertaining. These five students were selected from the group of contestants in each of the rally parades held during the past five weeks.

Judges for this final Rally Talent Parade have been selected from the College faculty and will announce the winners they choose, at the rally to be held a week from Friday, October 29.

Three first prizes will be presented.

To create additional interest in the talent parade, Jenkel Jewelers will present three trophies to contest winners.

Hal Delma, general manager of the rally talent parades and San Francisco State's head yell leader, expressed great satisfaction when questioned about the success of the series of rally talent parades. He expects a large and enthusiastic attendance today and adds that "it will be a combined Gala Rally Talent Parade and a Sacramento Excursion Trip Rally."

Delma has announced the next series of Rally Talent Parades which will begin the next Friday noon, October 29. "This series of Rally Talent Parades will follow the same procedure as the one we are now completing and will be climaxed by another Gala Talent Parade."

DEBATERS TALK ON NEUTRALITY

"Resolved; that the United States should adopt a strict neutrality policy toward all world belligerents" was the text of the debate held yesterday by the joint efforts of the San Francisco State College forensic society, Delta Sigma, the S. F. State chapter of the American Students' Union and the International Relations Club.

The affirmative side of the vital question was taken by a new member of the debating team, Bob "Tex" Sigerson, freshman arguer, and the president of the debating society and a member of the varsity team for two years, Bill Rose, who is also a member of the Board of Publications.

The negative side of the question was taken by two new members of Delta Sigma, Marianne Nelson and Patricio Mehino.

STUDENT PROGRAM PLANNED FOR RADIO

For the first time in the history of San Francisco State College, a feasible plan for the broadcasting of student events from the campus are definitely under way.

Instituted by Cliff Worth, the program will feature training school programs, musical programs and departmental events, and will be aired by KGGC.

THREE MAJOR PARTS

At the present time, according to Worth, the plan of procedure will include three major parts; (1) the broadcasting of Frederic Burk Training School programs, (2) departmental events, discussions and affairs, (3) home basketball games. A permanent line will be run from Frederic Burk, and such things as teaching procedures, student activities, and general training school methods will be presented. A temporary line will be installed from the gymnasium for the basketball games.

Under the present set-up, the cost of a half-hour program would be approximately ten dollars and will probably be on Fridays over station KGGC. A committee will seek a sponsor from some of the metropolitan business concerns and carry on the business of publicity.

ADVERTISE COLLEGE

"The whole idea," was the comment of Worth, "is to not only advertise State College in the Bay Area, but also to bring to the attention of the public some of the modern training school methods. Our present plans, which are as yet fairly temporary, will bring our different departments and their programs on the air, supplied with a musical background from our own Music Department and handled by our own talent. It will truly be a State program, for State students and by State students."

P. E. Club Tonight

Regular meeting of the P. E. Club will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the Women's Gym. All members are urged by President Bobbie Sandeen to be present as there is to be a special election of a new commissioner.

Golden Tide Tangles With Bear Cubs At Santa Rosa

Herb Pederson Stars for Northerners in Previous Gridiron Tilts

By FRANK SCHWASS

Into the land of the "Big Apple," treks the Golden Tide Friday nite, to tangle with the Santa Rosa J. C. Bear Cubs on the turf of Bailey Field. Successful in only one try out of five, the Gaters are hoping that a change of scenery will imbue them with the same will-to-win that possessed teams visiting Roberts Field.

BEAR CUBS CALLED "UNIMPRESSIVE"

Coach "Cook" Sypher, Jaysee mentor, has an aggregation described in their own school paper as being "unimpressive" in practice and which has dropped two games to Marin J. C. already this season. The Northern school has a strong line featuring a couple of two-hundred-pound tackles in Bill Paula and Jim Kennedy. A gentleman with the somewhat effete cognomen "Cuddles" Freeman, holds down the pivot spot flanked by brawny guards Ken Mahurin and Jim Dillon. Lee Weatherington and Maurice Daubin are the outstanding Jaysee ends.

SECOND COUSIN TO MOOSE

Herb Pederson, Santa Rosa's white hope, will probably be the man for the Gaters to watch Friday night. This second cousin to a moose weighs two hundred pounds, stands six foot two, and is a ten-second man to boot. Pederson will play quarter against the State team. "Black Bat" Battaglia, fierce-titled Bear Cub left-half, is called a "speed burner personified" by enthusiastic Santa Rosan sports writers so we'll let it go at that. Walt Kinney, iron-man fullback, and Walt Fellers, half, complete the Red and Blue backfield.

After being taken in tow by the Boys Club last Friday nite, the Gaters have been subjected to a punishing practice session all this week. With Captain Hal Beseman on the uncertain list because of a knee injury and with an increased

Devonshire Country Club Setting of Traditional Affair; Nat Thomas Scheduled to Play

Beginning the off-campus social functions of the semester, Sophomore Class will present their Annual Strut this Saturday night, October 23, in the traditional setting of the Devonshire Country Club in the San Carlos Hills.

Distinctive playing of Nat Thomas' eleven-piece orchestra will add much spirit to the affair. Nat Thomas is well known in the Bay area. He played for State's Senior Ball last year. Numerous feature artists will be presented during the evening.

Bids for the dance are selling at $1.50 per couple. They are obtainable at the table outside of the student body office.

Most convenient way to Devonshire Country Club is by the U. S. 101 highway. After reaching San Carlos, one turns up the main street, continuing for three-quarters of a mile, to the Devonshire Gateway. From there one continues to the top of the hill where the club is situated.

The sponsors for the Soph Strut are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cassidy and Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant.

Billy Hammond and Morley Carrouthers, low and high Sophomore Presidents, respectively, anticipate a large attendance at the dance and are enthusiastic about the plans they have arranged.

The committee assisting Hammond and Carrouthers includes Gwen Smith, Lee Scarlett, Esther Regier, Peggy Clifford, Betty Christiansen, and Kay Landerville.

EXCURSION TICKET SALE NEARS QUOTA

Ticket sale for the Sacramento Excursion trip for State's coming football encounter with Sacramento Jaysee on Friday, November 5, is rapidly reaching the required quota of 200 students. Aided by the San Francisco Chronicle contest, the committee in charge is using every effort to make this ticket drive successful.

Bud Decker heads the Excursion Committee, assisted by the Rally committee, Hal Delma, Vernon Rees, Vern Oulette, Francis Twohig, and Audrey Stewart.

FREE TICKETS OFFERED

Chronicle is offering a free excursion ticket for each new 6 months Chronicle subscription contract that is submitted by Friday, October 29, to Bud Decker, Harold Martin, or the special Excursion ticket booth in College Hall. Subscription blanks have been placed in all student post boxes. Further details and blanks regarding this offer may be obtained from the ticket booth.

Each excursion ticket is sold for $2.50 which includes transportation, one meal ticket, entrance to the game, and dancing to and from Sacramento. Two stripped assembly cars are being arranged for by Mr. Colthurst of the Southern Pacific Company. The cars will be used for dancing while the San Francisco State band provides the music.

ACCOMMODATIONS PLANNED

Train will stop at Oakland and Richmond on the return trip and the committee has arranged with Market Street cars numbered 1, 5, 9, 31 to accommodate students home. Arrangements will also be made with the Municipal and Oakland car companies.

Varied program, arranged by the committee in charge, will be presented on the train trip.

Entire restaurant will be at the disposal of the State delegation in Sacramento and busses will transport them to and from the depot to the game.

Joint rally, including 5 student stunts from each school, and a dance honoring the San Francisco students will be presented in the Sacramento Junior College gymnasium following the football game.

FASHION SHOW HELD TOMORROW

Members of Bib 'n' Tucker are sponsoring a fashion show for the Frederic Burk P. T. A. tomorrow afternoon in the F. B. Auditorium. Models will wear their own clothes and talk will be given by Miss Mayer to accompany the display.

There will be a typical wardrobe for the Sacramento game which should be of some significance to the co-eds' mothers. "The problems which present themselves in dressing for a football game," according to Miss Mayer, "are problems which co-eds often encounter when dressing for games which are followed by dances."

Miss Mayer will also give the principles of budgeting the wardrobes and will show by illustration, the ways in which a basic dress may appear through the changing of accessories. The utility of accessories in a wardrobe will be pointed out.

EDITORIALS

Editorials and feature articles in the Golden Gater reflect only the writer's opinion. They make no claim to represent student or administration opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the Editor.

"Go With the Gaters"

You have noticed, and you will still notice, that between some stories in the Gater is the line "Beat Sacramento," sometimes alternating with "Go with the Gaters."

Both of these exhortations are good ones, and if possible should be followed.

The first is directed to the team. The second is directed to those members of the student body who are in a position to make the trip to Sacramento as a part of the excursion party.

Apart from making a rooting section for the team after the group gets to Sacramento, imagine the rare sport of taking the trip en masse!

Chairman Bud Decker promises that not more than two hundred can go, so reach for your purse or wallet today and extract two fifty, then give it to one of the odd specimens who dwell in the cage in college hall!

P. A. To Be Doctored

Last Monday's executive board meeting found the matter of a P. A. system with internal grief brought up for consideration. After due deliberation, it was decided to refer the infernal machine to Mr. Lewis, who will be instructed to do what he can to improve the general health of the amplifier.

And so we place our trust in this man, who can fix most anything, and hope that in the future, when the P. A. is used, students will be able to understand it.

During part of the discussion, it was suggested that a locked cabinet for the P. A. be built, so that people who wished to use the device would not have access to the controls inside.

Once the machine is correctly set, all that would be needed to turn it on would be to flip a switch and start talking.

A good part of the present difficulty is caused by student "tinkering", and locking the cabinet will help preserve the P. A. for posterity.

Bacon From Santa Rosa?

To Santa Rosa goes the Golden Tide this Friday to leave its mark on the out of town gridiron. Whether that mark will represent a win or a defeat remains to be seen.

To be sure, the prospects of victory appear clad in deep black, but something might just happen to shut off the flow of consistent defeat, and allow the team to come off the field at ending time with a bacon to bring home to the campus.

Staters are hungry for some of this "football bacon," and if the team will bring some home, it will be glorified in the eyes of the student body.

No one seems to know very much about the Santa Rosa team, but farmers' sons are proverbially strong. Let's hope we weakie city slickers can use them for mops.

Soph Strut Saturday

Saturday night will be the first off-campus dance of the season. As such it should be a success, so all best wishes to the Soph class.

This formal is the first that the class will have given, but indications show that under the guidance of Carrothers and Hammond, the class will do itself proud.

For a good evening's entertainment hop into your car, and with another couple or two, take in the Soph Strut at Devonshire.

Gater Safari Sights Devonshire

By BILL BUCHAN

(Travel Editor—Golden Gater)

SOMEWHERE IN THE WILDS OF THE BELMONT HILLS, OCTOBER 21.—Eageryl scanning the horizon for a glimpse of the famed Devonshire Country Club, your correspondent today was wading through jungle streams, evading the ferocious charges of lowing cattle, dodging hostile tribesmen armed with rifles filled with rock salt, and all to bring you the story of the Soph Strut.

SEARCH STARTS

The Golden Gater expedition in search of this famed tribal spectacle, left the city at 3:30 a.m. yesterday morning. Our safari consisted of Tim Guiney's broken-down Studebaker, two hitch hikers to a college on the Peninsula, your correspondent, two cameras, and foodstuffs (two chocolate bars and two bottles, Guiney wouldn't let us see the labels). We stopped to refuel at San Mateo and proceeded on to our jumping-off place, Belmont.

Upon arrival at Belmont we were met by a delegation of well wishers including the town constable. Indeed, our expedition was late in getting started, due to the fact that Guiney had to talk himself out of a trip to the Belmont hoosegow. It seems that the constable objected to the noise of the Studebaker; he said something about "disturbing the peace."

EXIT WELCOME

At last we were on our way into the jungles. Fortified by some of the magic liquid that was in the two bottles, we started westerly from Belmont. The ovation we received, on departing, was magnificent—in fact, I think the townspeople were glad to get rid of us.

We traveled for hours, going deeper and deeper into the trackless jungle. Well, if they call that line running through the underbrush a track, I am nearsighted.

Peering frantically ahead, Guiney was non-plussed. "This can't happen to me," he declared. "We must find the Strut. Think of the disgrace if I don't report the lowdown on this Strut business."

We proceeded with caution through a jungle forest. We were now on foot as the Studebaker had given up the ghost. Draining the last of the liquid, Guiney marched on. "I'll find this tribe," he shouted. It was rather unfortunate that he created any noise. Hostile tribesmen appeared on the scene and began firing at us with rifles. We made a quick departure.

DEVONSHIRE AT LAST

We proceeded. That was all. Neither of us knew the location of north, south or east. Yet we stumbled on. We would succeed. We must get the story.

We climbed a little rise and peered at the horizon. Guiney gave a cry. Lights. They were the lights of Devonshire. Gleefully we started for them. We finally conquered the five miles that lay between us and the tribal council fires.

Exhausted and worn, we fell into a deep sleep.

(Editor's Note: The intrepid explorers will relate the story of the tribal dance, if, when, and where, they come to life.)

GOLDEN TIDE ROLLS TO SANTA ROSA; J. C. BOAST STRONG LINE

..TIME.. ..OUT..

By TOM THORPE
Sports Editor

HELLO . . .

Having sufficiently recuperated from my poetic frame of mind I shall meander a bit in today's column . . . The following Open Letter to the State Varsity was found in my box . . . I assume no responsibility for its contents . . .

OPEN LETTER . . .

Dear Footballers:

You men are slowly but surely dropping down into that popular classification here at State known as Pansies, Rooty-Toots, Weak Sisters or what have you. Football players are born, not made. You fellows aren't football players, you're publicity hounds. Look at the Boys' Club game; just because there was no crowd up in the stands applauding every play, you figured what the h———, this is just a breather anyhow. You know the result: you lost the ball game.

A few items that prove you guys are a bunch of gutless wonders: (1) Jackson standing on the 35 yd. line letting a kick roll down to his feet and waiting for the other team to fall on it, without attempting to pick it up and run. (2) Jarl attempting to place a murderous tackle on a man by grabbing his arm as if he was shaking hands with a long lost friend. (3) Glavich, looking like the Missing Link in that mask, letting the opposing team roll through him like water through a sieve. (4) Gomez, running up to tackle a man by nudging him with his shoulder, such brutality! Need I go further? The coaches can't help situations like this. They are on the bench, not on the field. They can only show you boys how to play the game. If you don't show the old fighting spirit that makes up 75 per cent of any team there is absolutely nothing they can do after you're on the field. Why should they bear the brunt of all criticism? If you guys, by some miraculous quirk of fate, win, you get the credit, if you lose, the coaches take it. Think it over fellows.

Yours truly,

An Ardent State Supporter

. . . This letter might be the work of a Monday morning back or it might be words from a person who knows . . . I don't know . . . What do you think, the number is still Box 106 . . . I'll print all contributions, signed or unsigned, but don't use profanity . . . the linotypist is very religious! . . .

DRESSING-ROOM DRIBBLE . . .

Close your eyes and picture this: State's football men all seated on the mats or standing up, looking very serious . . . Mentor Farmer is pacing up and down the room with blood in his eye and his hand in his pocket . . . It's about a half hour before the Boys' Club game . . . Farmer is saying things to the team which go like this: "%(—'½(—'%$'#(", and the boys are feeling very hurt . . . Finally Dan says, "#'—&'O, don't you guys ever get mean? (sneer and a curled lip), don't you? Don't you guys ever get mean? . . . Then he whirled on Jarl with that aforementioned question . . . He said, "Jarl, don't you ever get mean?" . . . . . Whereupon our monstrous tackle looked innocently up, with his soft blue eyes aglow and putting that "dying calf in a thunderstorm" look on his face he murmured softly, "No!" . . . Oh me! . . .

TO THE WOMEN . . .

Corduroy trousers, the All-American garb, seems to be causing quite a furore among the women on this campus . . . Supposing we were to tell you girls what kind of pan—, hats to wear? . . . After all, who would you rather go around with, a pair of pants or the person in them?

JUNIOR VARSITY . . .

Friday afternoon at 3:30 on Roberts Field the Junior Varsity will tangle with the Commerce Hi reserves . . . Come on down and see your future varsity ballplayers in action, you'll still have plenty of time to get up to Santa Rosa to watch the varsity meet the Santa Rosa J. C. Bear Cubs . . . Dance after too! . . . Rumors have it the JayVee's looked mighty good last Friday nite, regardless of the score . . . Even surpassing the varsity in spots . . . One never can tell about this younger generation! . . .

CONGRATULATIONS, KAY . . .

Kay Kircher, State aquatic star, recently placed second in the Golden Gate swim which attracted all of the leading women swimmers in northern California . . . Something to brag about for State and Kay, nice going! . . .

Journalists Lose By One Point; Bloom Is Leader of Victors

By the margin of one point, the Golden Gater intramural gridders lost their second straight contest of the season when they were nosed out Tuesday noon by the Purple Speedsters 13-12 on the upper field.

BLOOM LEADS ATTACK

The Speedsters' attack was almost entirely dependent on one man—Paul Bloom, while the Gaters showed excessive disorganization with momentary lapses causing the defeat.

Monday the Block "S" showed its real strength by trouncing Weeke's Men 14-6. Hal Thompson scored both of the blockmen's touchdowns on passes. This win for the Block "S" marks them as the outstanding team in the tournament. The defeat of the Golden Gaters knocked them out of a possible chance to win the title in their division.

TWO GAMES TODAY

There are two games slated for today. At eleven o'clock the Rover Boys tackle the Purple Shirts in a game that was postponed from last Friday. At twelve the regularly slated contest between the Has-Beens and Ramblers will start. Managers please note. Tomorrow's game is the first crucial of the season. The Rover Boys again taking the field against the Bears. A loss for either team will practically put it out of the running; both teams are undefeated at the present time.

STANDING OF TEAMS

Up to today, the following is the standings of the various squads: Division I: Block "S", 1 win, 1 tie; Bears, 1 win; Rover Boys, 1 tie; Weeke's Men, 2 losses; Purple Shirts, haven't played. Division II: Campus Characters, 1 loss; Farmer's Gnomes and Bone Crushers, 1 win; Fischer's Fighters, 1 loss. Division III: Ramblers and Purple Speedsters, 1 win; Golden Gaters, 2 losses; Remains and Has-Beens haven't played.

TEAM PRACTICES HARD

Gater and His Past

EVERYBODY TO SANTA ROSA

By HARRY McDEVITT

Determined either to get a football team or a bunch of badly smashed-up cripples, Mentors Farmer and Harden have been putting the boys through the paces this past week. After the showing against the Boys' Club last Friday night the coaches have been "pouring it on" in the hopes that a football team will emerge.

With the fellows not pulling their punches at practice, a tough and plenty anxious eleven will wear the colors of State Friday night against the Santa Rosa J. C. in order to redeem their past defeats. San Mateo J. C. put a stick in the Gater's mouth, because they are helpless that way. Some Farmers, headed by Serpa, came down from Davis and put the stick back in, after the Gater took all week taking it out. Then the Gater got a little irked and when the Wildcats from Chico asked to stay for dinner the Gater forgot all about San Francisco hospitality and told him off. Then they started working for the Junior College in the hopes that the old stick trick wouldn't be pulled again. It wasn't. Instead of the J. C. Ram putting the old stick in the Gater's mouth, he butted him from behind which entirely took the Gater by surprise.

There we have the situation to date, now the Gaters are roughing it up this week and getting prepared for the Bear Cub, who have yet to emerge victorious in the melees with the Gater. Let's everybody take a run up to Santa Rosa and get behind the team. They'll need all the moral support they can get. A dance is scheduled for after the game, so grab your hats! It's Town Hall Friday nite!

SAY IT ISN'T SO . . . . . .

By EDEL

When the New York Yankees handed old "poosh 'em up" Lazzeri his unconditional release recently, the hue and cry was that Tony was slated for a big league managerial post. . . . It is this column's contention, however, that Tony will not receive a big league post. . . . There are too many experienced and proven men hunting for jobs. . . . Tony might have plenty of baseball brains, but look at our own Willie Kamm. . . . You look at him. . . . We look for Tony to be combing the bushes next year as a scout, maybe a coach on some major league outfit.

Although the thundering herd is coming to town come Saturday with hopes of knocking over the Golden Bears, we can't see anything but California 20, U. S. C. 7. . . .

Notes on the cuff. . . . San Francisco is slated for big time hockey. The new rink at Sutro Baths will be completed soon. . . . They're all picking Fred Apostoli, the fighting bell hop, to defeat Freddy Steele in their coming championship encounter. We'll stick to Steele, however. He knocked out Apostoli once. He can do it again. . . . It looks like Los Angeles in the National Professional Football League this year and the Chicago Bears in the American. . . . For big league managerial posts we see Buck O'Neill remaining at Cleveland, old Oscar Vitt to the Boston Bees. . . Gabby Street to the St. Louis Browns. Casey Stengel, the man who was paid $15,000 for not managing the Brooklyn Dodgers last year is a good bet for the Boston post. . . . For the big time football team with the set up schedule we offer our own Santa Clara Broncos. We look for one of their setups, San Jose State by name, to get up and upset them. After that they'll be national chumps. Say it isn't so.

Music from Hollywood

"Music from Hollywood" . . . songs of the movies . . . sung by the stars—and played for dancing America. That's the idea behind the popularity of Alice Faye-Hal Kemp's Chesterfield radio programs, heard over the Columbia Network every Friday evening at 8:30 E.S.T. (Western Stations 8:30 P.T.).

Kemp's famous dance orchestra and Miss Faye's charming voice make one of the smartest and brightest programs on the air.

JayVee Basketballers Coached By Mirande; Last Year Men Return

With the end of the football season and the beginning of varsity basketball also begins the yearly capers of the varsity's little brothers, the basketball jayvee.

This year the jayvee is to be coached by last year's mentor, the former basketball star for the Gaters, George Mirande, who led the jayvees to wins last year over such teams as most of the San Francisco High Schools, the Chinese Y. M. C. A., Willets and Ukiah high schools, Visitation Valley A.C., and to several victories over our neighbors, the Palm Lodge A. C.

ENGLISH BACK

Most of last year's "baby Gaters" of the hardwood will be out to toss the casaba again this season under Mirande's tutelage. Among the veterans returning are Ronnie English, undefeated tennis star, Frankie Collins, consistent point scorer for last season's team, Bill Rowlands, a sophomore who won a circle on last year's team, and Al Thompson, who has already won a block for two years' service on the jayvees.

THE COLLINS BOYS RETURN

Red Thompson, much improved football star, will also make a reappearance on the jayvees this year. He will be accompanied also by such stellar players as "Buzz" Allread, who was high point man for the Flying A's last season, Jim Hopkins, honorarily elected captain of the relay squad for his performance with the wearers of the "underwear" last year, But Decker, out for a third time, Lee Carrothers, out for a second try, and Ed Collins, who was out for his first time last year.

JUNIOR VARSITY TO MEET COMMERCE HI

Having already suffered a defeat in their first gridiron encounter of the season, the Junior Varsity football team, under the tutelage of Tom Bragg, has started intensive practice for their second game of the year Friday afternoon at Roberts Field.

Inexperience proved the deciding factor in the Jayvee defeat. Many of the first string men were experiencing their first baptism under fire, but nevertheless proved to onlookers that with the necessary experience and the moxie that goes with it, they will be a suitable supplement to the varsity grid team.

The game Friday afternoon with the Commerce High School reserves will be but the second of a tentative schedule drawn up by Coach Bragg. The contest will be free to students, hostilities commencing at 3:30.

Who made the crack about the "Second and Third strings" losing to the Boys' Club? . . . You can't tell from where you sit, but it looked like everybody was in there except Jacobs . . . My, my!! . . .

injured list a possibility after the practice sessions, the Golden Tide must enter the field against the Northerners a decided underdog. The weight of the Bear Cub line coupled with the speed of their backfield may wreak havoc on the weakened Purple and Gold.

KAUER GETS CREDIT

Before wringing hands over a forthcoming Gater defeat, however, it is best to point out that a silver lining is to be found in the cloud of woe hanging over dear old State. The silver in the line comes in the form of Ralph Kauer, indomitable Gater guard, and Paul Bloom, ace wingman of the Harden-Farmer crew. Kauer is a much unpublicized gentleman interested more in the game than in reading about his exploits afterwards. Probably of all positions on a football squad, that of guard receives the least notice. A guard is usually at the bottom of all plays and by the time he picks himself off the ground the crowd has forgotten the play. Sometimes it is worth while keeping one's eyes on the pile-up after a play has been stopped. When you see a guy at the bottom pull himself to his feet and trot back to the huddle take a good look at him, there is a good chance that it will be Ralph Kauer.

BLOOM IMPROVED PLAYER

Paul Bloom is one of the most improved players on the Gater squad. Bloom has the ability to get down fast under punts, he is a good pass receiver, and plays a bang-up defensive game.

Louie Glavich will probably play opposite Kauer, and Frank Jackson will hold down the other wing job opposite Bloom. Beseman and Hook Hanrahan are expected to be in at tackle although the trick knee of the "Tripod" may keep him from seeing action. The Purple and Gold backfield will probably consist of Gomez, Harkness, Thompson, and Iago. Bob Kelnhofer should see plenty of action because of his comeback into the ranks of the ground-gainers. Bill Harkness is always reliable especially in the kicking department. The famous Harkness kicks have pulled the Gaters out of more tight squeezes than Flash Gordon gets into. Punting may turn the Tide Friday night especially with Batty Battaglia in the safety spot.

CUBS LIKE FOOTBALL

Santa Rosa is famous for its apples, Queen Anne cherries, and beautiful women. It is the hopping off place for Russian River expeditions and is the door to the Redwood Highway. The Santa Rosans, like Texans, take their football seriously and the Jaysee is the apple of their eye. It is the hope of the Golden Tide that they can pluck the precious apple, expectorate in the doting eye of the Santa Rosans, and escape southward without the well-known pains that come from the eating of that species of fruit that caused the ruckus in the Garden of Eden.

In plain English, the Tide expects to roll to victory.

PERSONALITY

We have another blonde in our parade this week—Virginia Kyriazi, the tall girl who is always going somewhere and for a definite reason. That girl is never found idling away her time in a Co-Op booth or on the lawn. (Which is the difference between us and those who graduate in four years). No ma'am. Efficiency is her pet hobby, and energetic ambition her code of honor. She is outstanding in her ability to organize and administer an undertaking. She has held innumerable offices in clubs and other organizations at State. For instance: she was president of W.A.A. at one time, and also of Kappa Delta Pi. She is now vice-president of the low senior class.

KINNIBBER SAUCE

The Executive Committee of the S.I.P.R. met last Monday at Mills College. Phyllis Ferrarri is, as you know, our campus chairman.

We hear that Opal Homer can really do things with a pair of chopsticks. This skill was discovered at the Chinatown Tour of the International Club last week. We're wondering—Oh, well.

The debate yesterday was rather good, no? Bet some of you would like to dig into a good old game of chess, wouldn't you? It's a swell way to spend your noon hours. Come around to Annex A-8 any day. You'll probably run into a game and learn the tricks.

We would like to extend our sincerest sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Anne Crossland, former member of the freshman class, who passed away last Saturday evening.

WHAT WE ARE READING

Snooping around in the library, we ran across Sugimoto's book, "Daughter of the Samurai". In view of the present affairs in the Orient this book will interest most of you, for it is a delightfully written story of Japanese life. To give you an idea, The Samurai is a high-ranking military family of Japan, and the entire book is devoted to portraying the customs, both religious and social. The author tries to show how a mutual feeling of respect could exist between the Japanese and American people. Altogether, it is thoroughly enjoyable.

FASHIONS

There is one thing we are sure of, and that is, scarfs are THE thing right now. We can have linen scarfs with brilliant figures to go on dark dresses. We can have silk scarfs to match our other accessories of a suit. We can even have scarfs with football schedules of all the big teams printed on them. Just about the cleverest variation of scarfs that has come our way yet, though, is the waterproofed ones to tie over your head in wintery weather. They can be folded up and carried in your binder when not in use, and they do not ruffle the wave like a hat does. Besides that, they save the weathering on your good hats. In fact they are completely satisfactory, and solve an annoying problem.

Student Holds S. I. P. R. Post

Phyllis Ferrari has been appointed to the honorary position of Chairman of the Reception Committee for the Student Institute of Pacific Relations Convention that is to be held on the University of California campus during the Thanksgiving holidays.

This appointment, made by Geo. Farris, President of the S. I. P. R., was given Miss Ferrari because of the splendid work which she accomplished on the "Youth Movement" at the Convention last year. She was given the privilege of selecting her committee from any of the universities that send representatives but she voiced her preference for San Francisco State. The committee will be selected from the students that show special ability in leadership, and are interested in the aims of this movement.
